THE CONNECTICUT REGISTER: BEING AN Official State Calendar
of
PUBLIC OFFICERS AND INSTITUTIONS
IN CONNECTICUT,
FOR

BY CHARLES W. BRADLEY, JR.,
Clerk in the office of the Secretary of State.

"Vineam—transtulisti. ejecisti gentes et plantasti eam. Dux itineris fuisti in conspectu ejus; plantasti radices ejus, et implevit terram. Operuit montes umbra ejus, et arbusta ejus cedros Dei. Extendit palmites suos usque ad mare, et usque ad flumen propagines ejus." Ps. LXXIX.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT, ss. }
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE. }

I hereby certify, that I have compared with the original entries in this office, the following printed matter, and find the same to be true copies of record: to wit — the Patent of 1631; the Charter of 1662; the list of Colony and State Officers from 1639 to 1847; the limits and alterations of the several Probate Districts; the lists of the several civil, judicial, military and other Public Officers of the State for the time being, and the Canvass of Votes for Governor and Senators in the years 1845 and 1846.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said State, at Hartford, this 7th day of December, A. D. 1846, and in the 71st year of the Independence of the United States of America.

CHARLES WM. BRADLEY,
Secretary of State.

At a meeting of the CONNECTICUT HISTORICAL SOCIETY, at the Society's Rooms, in the City of Hartford, Dec. 1, 1846,

This Society having had submitted to it the proof sheets of "The Connecticut Register and Official State Calendar for 1847," it is hereupon

Resolved, That the Connecticut Historical Society, approving the subject matter, arrangement and accuracy of the aforesaid Register, do recommend it as a valuable addition to the historical and statistical collections of the State, as well as for its usefulness as a Directory of public officers and institutions.

A true copy.

Attest,

CHARLES HOSMER, Recording Secretary.

Entered, according to the Act of Congress, in the year 1846, by CHARLES W. BRADLEY, JR., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Connecticut.

Preface.

In preparing this work for the press, the Editor has in all cases availed himself of the most authentic sources of information. Much of the matter has been drawn directly from the archives of the State, and the proof-sheets have been carefully corrected by the original files and records in the Secretary's Office. The lists of town, borough and city authorities were derived from written returns, obligingly made by the Clerks of those bodies respectively; and with regard to other spécialités herein contained, it will be sufficient to add, generally, that they were procured from the official organs or last reports of the associations that are mentioned, and corrected, as far as practicable, to the present time.

The distance between each town in the State and the two semi-capitals, (as expressed in place,) is the Mileage allowed to Members of the General Assembly, by resolution of that body.

Albeit great care and pains have been taken to avoid errors, however insignificant, yet in this respect the Editor cannot flatter himself that his book is absolutely immaculate. Indeed it can hardly be expected, that out of more than two hundred MS. returns, from as many different individuals, (and some of those returns exhibited ingenious but very questionable glyphs,) he should be able in every instance to get at the true reading of mere personal names;—an attempt which even M. Champollion the Younger would have given up in despair. Still, it is believed that on the score of inaccuracy, there will be discovered, on the whole, but little cause of complaint. In this connexion there is another point which ought not to be silently passed. It will be found upon an examination of the venerable historian of Connecticut, that there are discrepancies between his statements and those of this manual, as to the date of incorporation of certain towns. In a few of these instances, the authority for deviating from so respectable a writer is noted immediately after the year here given, reference being had to the original Act, and the volume and page in which it may be found among the Records of the State. Dr. Trumbull has repeatedly mistaken those patents which were granted to some of the earlier towns (long after they were legally incorporated and represented in the General Court) for primal corporative charters,—and has thus fallen into important metachronisms, which are now for the first time corrected.

A large amount of valuable materials which had been prepared for the Register has been necessarily omitted, lest, by increasing the size of the volume,—already more plethoric than its honoured competitor,—the price of it should be so much enhanced as to preclude a ready and entire sale of the small edition which the publishers have deemed it safe to put forth. For the same reason, few paragraphs have been admitted which do not illustrate or concern the local institutions of Connecticut alone.

To the several municipal and judicial Clerks, to the Cashiers,

Secretaries, Sheriffs and other officers and private gentlemen who have furnished the Editor with a portion of his materials, he thus publicly and gratefully offers his thanks.

Hartford, Dec. 10, 1846.

Rates of Postage.

Letters.—Single, or any number of pieces, not exceeding half an ounce, 300 miles or less, 5 cents—if over 300 miles, 10 cents. Drop letters, not mailed, 2 cents. Single postage added for each additional half ounce, or part thereof. Advertised letters charged additionally with cost of advertising. Ship letters to have the inland postage pre-paid.

Newspapers.—Of 1900 square inches or less, sent by editors or publishers, from their offices of publication, any distance not exceeding 30 miles, free. Over 30 miles, and not exceeding 100, 1 cent—over 100 miles and out of the state, 1 cent and a half. All sizes over 1900 square inches, postage same as pamphlets.

Pamphlets, Magazines, Periodicals, &c., any distance, for one ounce or less, 2 cents. For each additional ounce, or fractional part thereof, 1 cent and one half.

Circulars.—Quarto post, single cap, or paper not larger than single cap folded, directed and unsealed, for every sheet, 2 cents.

When subscribers refuse to take out papers, &c., postmasters are required to notify editors, and may frank letters containing such notice. Private posts for carrying Newspapers are allowed. No private mails, for the regular transmission of letters over mail routes, to be allowed, under heavy penalties.

Any memorandum upon Newspapers or Pamphlets, or upon the wrappers, subjects the same to letter postage, which is calculated by weight, as above stated.

When the article to be mailed is a circular, pamphlet or newspaper, it should be so enveloped or folded, that it can be distinctly seen at the office to be such, and also that it contains no writing, mark or signs to serve the purpose of written communications. If not done up so as to be open at the end, it is to be charged as a letter, by weight.

Superscriptions, particularly the name of the Post Office and State, should be perfectly legible, otherwise the matter mailed may fail to reach its destination.

NOTE BY THE PUBLISHERS.

In continuing this Register, the historical and statistical matter will be changed from year to year, and no exertions shall be wanting to gain for it a reputation for accuracy and usefulness.

Advertisements to be inserted must be forwarded to the Publishers as early as the 10th of November, post paid.

TERMS.—For ten lines or under, $1; for the next ten lines or under, 50 cents.

Eclipses in the Year 1847.

This year there will be two eclipses of the Sun and two of the Moon.

1. Wednesday, March 21st, at 4h. 24m. P. M., the Moon will be eclipsed; invisible in America,—seen only in the Eastern Hemisphere.

2. Thursday, April 15th, at the time of new moon, the Sun will be eclipsed: invisible in America,—the line of central and total eclipse passing over the Indian Ocean and the northern part of Australia.

3. Friday, Sept. 24, at the time of full moon, the Moon will be partially eclipsed; invisible on this continent east of the Rocky Mountains.

4. Saturday, Oct. 9, at 4h. 14m. A. M., the Sun will be eclipsed; invisible in America, except in the north-eastern part of Greenland. It will be seen throughout Europe, nearly the whole of Asia, and in the northern portion of Africa; central and annular in Lat. $31^{\circ} 22'$ N. and on the meridian in Lon. $47^{\circ} 11'$ E. from Greenwich.

JANUARY, (Lat. Januarius,) is so called from Janus, one of their superior gods, to whom the first day of the year was made sacred. His original name was Djanus or Dianus; supposed to have been derived from dies, a day.

The Anglo-Saxons called this month, Afterra-Geola, i. e. after Yule, or Christmas.

DECEMBER,—from the Latin decem, ten; being the tenth month in the Roman calendar.

A.-S. Ærra-Geola, or -Iula, before Yule or Christmas. The word Yule signifies a feast.

Annals of Connecticut.*

[The dates following are in Old Style until Sept. 3, 1751; after which they are in New Style.]

1620. Nov. 3. The first English Patent to the Council of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, was granted by James I., "for planting, ruling and governing New England in America," and embraced all the country between 40° and 49° N. Lat., extending westward "from sea to sea." Within these limits Connecticut was included. [Hazard's Collections, I. 103—118. Trumbull's History of Connecticut, I. 4, 1st edition.

1631. April. Sequeen or Sequin, the Indian "sagamore of the whole of Connecticut River and the country thereabout," having been vanquished by the Pequots, sends Wahginnacut, one of his chiefs, to Gov. Winthrop, at Boston, desiring him to send some Englishmen to settle and plant in his country. He also sent a similar message to Gov. Winslow, at Plymouth. [Winthrop's Hist. of N. Eng. by Savage, I. 52. Trumbull, I. 15. Verbael Van Beverninck, 607. O'Callaghan's Hist. of N. Netherlands, 149. Holmes' Amer. Annals, I. 219.

1631. March 19. The old Patent of Connecticut was granted and signed by Robert, Earl of Warwick, President of the Council of Plymouth, to Lord Say and Seale, Lord Brook, Sir Richard Saltonstall and others; extending also from the "ocean to the South Sea." [Trumb. I. 12, and appendix, 525. Hazard I. 318.

1633. June 8. Jacob Van Curler, agent of the Dutch Governor Wouter Van Twiller, purchased of Tattoeapan, (=Sassacus,) the sachem of the Pequots, at the request of Sequeen, the land upon which the Dutch built their trading-house at Hartford, called the Hirse of Good Hope. [Holland Documents, copied by Mr. Broadhead, agent of the State of N. York, MS. Vol. IX. 187, 188. Trumb. I. 20. See also the genealogy of Uncas, among the MSS. in the Office of Secretary of State, Hartford.

1633. Oct. William Holmes of Plymouth, erects a trading-house at Windsor, [Trumb. I. 20.

1634. May. The people of Cambridge, Dorchester and Watertown, Mass., applied to their General Court for permission to remove to Connecticut River, for the purpose of commencing a new settlement. This application failed; but liberty was granted the next year, and the settlement of Windsor, Hartford and Wethersfield was commenced in the autumn of 1635. [Hubbard's Hist. of N. England, chap. 27. Holmes, I. 223.

1635-6. March 3. A commission was granted by the General Court of Massachusetts, to Roger Ludlow, Esq. and seven others, investing them with legislative and judicial powers for governing the new plantation. [Hazard I. 321.

The first Court of Magistrates was convened eight weeks afterwards, viz: May 20, 1636.

1637. May 1. The first General Court of Magistrates and Deputies was held,—at which time, war was declared against the Pequots. [Colony Records of Ct. I. 4.

1637. May 26. The Pequot force was broken at the battle at Mystic Fort, by the Connecticut forces under Capt. John Mason and the Indians under Uncas. [Sparks' Amer. Biog. XIII. 382—386. Mass. Hist. Col. V. Trumbull, I. 76—78.

1637. July 5. The Pequots were defeated at Sachem's Head, by the English and Mohegans, and on the 13th of July in the Great Swamp at Fairfield. [Trumbull, I. 83, 84. Ruggles' MS. Hist. of Guilford.

In the pursuit of the Pequots, the lands at Menuncatuck, (=Guilford,) Quillipiack, (=New Haven,) and Uncowa, (=Fairfield,) were discovered and described by Capt. Israel Stoughton, commander of the Massachusetts forces. [Sav. Winth. I. 398—401.

1637. July 26. Gov. Theophilus Eaton, Rev. John Davenport, Rev. Samuel Eaton, Rev. Peter Pruden, Rev.

Henry Whitfield, and the other first settlers of New Haven Colony, arrived at Boston. [Trumb. I. 89. Bacon's Hist'l. Discourses, Appendix, 359.

1638. April 15. The settlement of Quillipiack (New Haven) commenced. [Kingsley's Hist, Disc. 17.

1639. Jan. 14. All the free planters of Connecticut assembled and adopted "for themselves and posterity," a free Constitution, and in the month of October following a committee was chosen to revise and prepare a code of laws. [Col. Rec. I. 220—224. Hazard, I. 437—441.

1639. June 4. The inhabitants of New Haven met in Mr. Robert Newman's barn and adopted their system of polity; at which meeting Mr. Whitfield and Mr. Prudden with their congregations were present. [Holmes, I. 252. New Haven Town Records, I. Guilford Town Records, II. 1.

1643. April 5. The "Combination" of the towns constituting the jurisdiction of New Haven Colony was perfected, and the delegates of the several towns of the Colony met in General Court and adopted a Constitution. [N. H. Town Rec. I.

1646. April. Roger Ludlow, Esq. was appointed to compile a body of laws for Connecticut Colony; which being done they were adopted in 1650. [Col. Rec I. 150.

1655. Gov. Theoph. Eaton compiled that code of laws for New Haven jurisdiction which has since been unjustly stigmatized as the "Blue Laws of Connecticut," These were printed in London in the following year.* [Trumb. I. 235. N. H. Col. Rec. II.

1662. April 30. Gov. Winthrop of Connecticut obtained the Royal Charter from Charles II. This instrument arrived in July or August following, when it was ascertained that the Colony of New Haven was included within its territorial jurisdiction.

1662. Oct. 9. The Charter was read and proclaimed, and a few days after, several "factious" persons of Guilford and Stamford, who had caused much difficulty both in church and state, by opposing the authorities of New Haven colony, appeared before the General Court at Hartford and tendered their submission to Connecticut, which was accepted and protection promised, before notifying the Government of N. Haven. [Trum. I. 260, ff. "New Haven Case stated," in Bacon's Hist. Dis. Appendix, 364.

1662. Nov. 4. At a meeting of the legislature of New Haven Colony, a communication was first received from the Colony of Connecticut, with a copy of the Charter, to which submission was required.

1663. Dec. 31. A committee from Connecticut Colony, with certain "factious persons," coming into Guilford in the night and firing guns, the inhabitants were alarmed, and Gov. Leete sent to New Haven for assistance. [N. H. Col. Rec. II. Bacon's Hist. Disc. Appendix.

1664. Nov. 17. Milford submitted to Connecticut by a town vote. [Milford Town Records, II.

1665. Jan 5. The colonies of Connecticut and New Haven came to an arrangement, and "the union was perfected in April or May following." [Hazard, II. 510. N. H. Col. Rec. II.

1665. Oct. The Court of Assistants was established,—consisting of at least seven assistants,—with judicial jurisdiction. [Col. Rec. II. 219.

1666. May. The Colony was divided into four Counties, viz: Hartford, New Haven, New London and Fairfield; and County Courts were established. [Col. Rec. II. 224-5.

1671. May. A committee was appointed to make a Revision of the Statutes of Connecticut, which revision was adopted the next year.

1673. Nov. 26. At a special session of the General Court, War was declared against the Dutch. [Col. Rec. III. 42.

1675. War with Philip, sachem of the Wampanoags, commenced.

1675. Dec. 19. The Narragansett fort taken, and the Indians defeated.

1687. Oct. 31. The Government of the Colony was assumed by Sir Edmund Andros and held until May, 1689; meanwhile, "Courts of Quarter Sessions" assumed the place of County Courts. [Col. Rec. III. 201-2.

1699. May. Prior to this time the Deputies met in the same room with the Governor and Council; this year the General Court was divided into two Houses. [Col. Rec. III. 315, 323.

1700. Oct. A new Revision of the Statutes was adopted.

1701. May. It was provided that hereafter the October session of the General Assembly (previously called "General Court") and of the Judicial Court of Assistants should be holden at New Haven. [Col. Rec. III. 361.

1701. Oct. Yale College incorporated, having been founded the previous year by several ministers on an endowment of books. [Col. Rec. III. 375-6.

1706. Episcopacy first taught in Connecticut, by Rev. Mr. Muirson, at Stratford. [Trumb. I. 503.

1708. Sept. 9. The "Saybrook Platform" was prepared, at a meeting of delegates from the councils of the several counties in the Colony, held at Saybrook. [Trumb. I. 509.

1711. May. The Court of Assistants was superseded by a new organization called the Superior Court,—consisting of one chief judge, and four other judges chosen annually; the chief judge to be the Governor, or, in his absence, the Deputy Governor,—the others to be members of the Council. [Col. Rec. IV. 158-160.

1713. Oct. The General Assembly ordered an emission of 20,000 pounds in bills of credit,—which, with subsequent emissions and their consequent depreciation caused the currency called Old Tenor.

1716. May. The Courts of Probate (the business of which had hitherto been included in the jurisdiction of County Courts) were constituted distinct courts, consisting of one judge with a clerk, and having limits commensurate with the counties. [Col. Rec. V. 46, 81, 120, 219, 340.

1719. Oct. The Probate Districts of Windham, Guilford and Woodbury established; being the first districts less than a county. [Col. Rec. V. 181-183.

1728. July 3. A letter was received by the General Assembly from Jeremiah Dummer, Esq., their agent in England, informing them that the law "for the settlement of intestate estates," established by the Colony, was reversed at Westminster, and great fears were had that the Charter would be annulled. [MSS. in Sec's Office, Hartford, entitled Foreign Correspondence, Vol. II. No. 115. Col. Rec. V. 649. Trumb. II. 55, 56.]

1739. Oct. War declared by Great Britain against Spain.

1750. Third general Revision of the Statutes published.

1751. May 22. This day an Act of Parliament was passed for adopting the New Style throughout the dominions of Great Britain, whereby eleven days in the computation of the year were dropped,—the 3d of September, 1751, being counted the 14th, and the year being made to commence on the 1st of January instead of the 25th of March, as heretofore.

1756. May 18. War was declared by Great Britain against France.

1758. July 26. Louisburg taken by Gen. Amherst, assisted by forces from New England.

1759. Sept. 13. Battle of Quebec and death of Generals Wolfe and Montcalm.

1767. March 22. The Stamp Act, having passed both Houses of Parliament, received the royal assent, by which a ream of bail bonds stamped cost £100, while a ream of common printed ones were only £15; a ream of stamped policies of insurance was £190, of common ones only £20. [Holmes, II. 133. Bradford's Mass. I. 13.]

1765. Oct. 7. A Continental Congress assembled, consisting of 28 delegates, and published a declaration of rights and grievances. [Holmes, II. 135.]

1775. April 19. The battle of Lexington.

1775. June 17. The battle of Bunker Hill.

1776. June 14. The General Assembly of Connecticut published a Declaration of Independence, in which they declare that their multiplied grievances make it evident, that they have nothing to hope from the justice, humanity or temperate councils of the British King, or his Parliament, and that no alternative is left, but absolute and indefinite submission, or a total renunciation of all connection with the British nation; and appealing to the God who knows all hearts, for the purity of their motives, they unanimously instruct their delegates in Congress, to propose to that body, "to declare the United American Colonies free and independent States, absolved from all allegiance to the King of Great Britain." [Col. Rec. XI. 606.]

1776. July 4. American Independence declared by Congress.

1777. April 26 and 27. The stores at Danbury destroyed, and General Wooster killed.

1777. Nov. 15. The Articles of Confederation of the thirteen United States, were agreed to in Congress, wherein the Confederacy is first styled, "The United States of America." [Journals of Congress, III. 502—510.]

1777. Jan. 15. The people of the New Hampshire Grants, not included in the original States, in a convention of their representatives at Westminster, declare their district an independent State, by the name of New Connecticut, alias Vermont.

1779. July 5. New Haven taken and plundered by Governor Tryon.

1779. July 7. Fairfield and Greensfarms burnt by Governor Tryon.

1779. July 12. Norwalk laid in ashes.

1781. March 1. The cession of the N. W. Territory by Virginia was accepted by Congress and the Confederacy completed.

1781. Sept. 6. Forts Trumbull and Griswold taken, New London burnt, and the brave Ledyard butchered!

1781. Oct. 19. The surrender of Lord Cornwallis.

1782. Feb. 1. The Census of Connecticut was 208,870 persons. Whites 202,597; Indians and Negroes 6,273.

1782. "McFingal" published by John Trumbull, at Hartford.

1784. Jan. The fourth general Revision of the Statutes of Connecticut was adopted.

1784. May. A Court of Errors constituted; consisting of the Lieut. Governor and Council, to which, in 1793, the Governor was added. [State Rec. III. 9.] It was also enacted by the General Assembly, that the judges of this court and the judges of the Superior Court should give their decisions in writing, that the cases might be fully reported; which laid the foundation of our law reports.

1784. Jan. and May. The cities of Hartford, New Haven, New London, Norwich, and Middletown incorporated.

1784. May. The General Assembly enacted, that no negro or mulatto child, born within the State after the 1st of March that year, should be held in servitude longer than until the age of twenty-five years.

1789. Ephraim Kirby, Esq. published the Reports of the higher courts of Connecticut, from 1785 to 1788: being the first volume of Reports published in America. [Preface to Kirby's Reports. Holmes, II. 378.]

1795. The fifth general Revision of the Statutes of Connecticut was published.

1796. "A System of the laws of Connecticut," by Zephaniah Swift, published; being the first work of the kind issued in the United States.

1799. Oct. The Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences incorporated.

1808. Nov. The sixth general Revision of the Statutes of Connecticut was published.

1812. June 19. War declared by the United States against Great Britain.

1814. April. A number of British barges, supposed to contain about 220 men, entered the mouth of Connecticut River, passed up seven or eight miles, and came on shore at a part of Saybrook called Pettipaug, [since the borough of Essex,] where they destroyed about 25 vessels,—burning 4 ships, 4 brigs, 4 schooners and 9 sloops, owned in New York, Hartford, Middletown and Pettipaug. [Holmes, II. 462.]

1814. Aug. 9 to 11. The British fleet, in Long Island Sound, under Sir Thomas Hardy, bombarded Stonington in Connecticut. The inhabitants sustained the attack with great fortitude, and made a most valorous defence. The loss of the British was 21 killed, and upwards of fifty wounded; of the Americans only 6 were wounded. [Holmes, II. 466.]

1814. Dec. 15. A convention of delegates from some of the Northern States met at Hartford, constituting the so called "Hartford Convention."

1814. Dec. 24. A treaty of peace with Great Britain was concluded, and signed at Ghent, which was ratified Feb 17 following.

1818. Sept. 15. The delegates of the several towns in Connecticut met in convention and formed a CONSTITUTION for the State, which was adopted the 5th of October the same year.

1819. May. The present organization of our Superior and Supreme Courts commenced.

1821. May. The seventh general Revision of the Statutes was enacted. "The recent Revision of the Statutes of this State," said Governor Wolcott, "has brought us to the commencement of a new and interesting era. We now see concentrated in a single volume, the results of the wise legislation of two centuries, embracing the municipal regulations which govern the conduct of a civilized community, where agriculture, commerce, arts and sciences have attained that proficiency which is most favourable to the development and maturity of each. Though to inexperienced eyes this code may appear as a new work, produced by some great change in our social system, yet to more accurate observers it will be apparent that it embraces the most ancient regulations of the founders of New England" [Gov. Wolcott's Message of that year.]

receives its name from the principal river, which passes through from north to south, dividing its territory into nearly equal parts. "Connecticut" has a multitude of orthographic variations in all the early colonial manuscripts and books, and its etymology is also uncertain.

The present limits of the State are comprised within Lat. 41° to $42^{\circ} 2' N.$ and Lon. $71^{\circ} 20'$ to $73^{\circ} 15' W.$; being 88 miles in length, about 53 in average breadth, and containing 4828 square miles. This area contains 144 towns (including 6 cities and 16 boroughs) which are all distributed into four larger districts,—two classes of which are for judicial and two for representative purposes. Of the former, there are 8 Counties and 86 Probate Districts; of the latter, there are 4 Congressional Districts and 21 Senatorial Districts.

The population as ascertained at different periods has been as follows:—In

1671,	1676,	1677,	1678,	1679,	1756,	1774,
2,050.	2,306.	2,365.	2,490.	2,507.	130,611.	197,365.
1782,	1790,	1800,	1810,	1820,
209,150.	238,141.	251,002.	262,042.	275,202.
	1830,	1840,
	297,675.	309,978.

The number of persons between the ages of 4 and 16 years, in August, 1845, as returned to the Comptroller's Office, is 85,694.

The Value of Manufactures and of articles produced in the State, for the year ending October 1st, 1845, was $48,874,304; capital invested in the same, $15,577,308; number of hands employed, 54,807.

The Expenses of Government for the year ending March 31st, 1846, were $92,207 34.

Amount of the School Fund, September 2d, 1845, $2,070,055 01.—Dividend of March 1, 1846, $119,385, being $1 40 on each child.

Number of School Societies, 215; of Districts, 1644.

Amount of the Grand List of 1845, $4,143,698 50.

The number of votes polled at the Presidential Election in Nov. 1844, was 64,619; at the State Election, in April, 1846, 57,610.

The whole number of Representatives to the General Assembly is 220;—of Senators, 21.

State tax, one cent on the dollar.

Amount of the U. S. Surplus Fund, received by the State, 1837, $763,661 83.

Probate Courts.

Probate Courts were first established in October, 1698. From the time of the organization of the County Courts in 1666, to this time, probate business was done by Counties in their Courts. Previous to that it was done by the Court of Assistants, and the General Court.

In October, 1698, the following order was passed by the General Court.

"It is ordered, that the Judge appointed to keep the Countie Courts, with two of the Justices of the Quorum, shall keep the Court for the Probate of Wills, Granting administration and appointing and allowing of Guardians, with full power to act in all matters proper for a prerogative Court." * * "and the said prerogative Court to have full power to appoint all officers needfull and proper for the said Court; and if any person be aggrieved with the determination of the said Court, he shall have Liberty of appeal to the Court of Assistants. [Col. Rec. III. 315, 316.]

In May, 1716, it was voted, that "the Courts of Probate for the severall Counties in this Colony shall * * be holden by one Judge and one Clerk in each County." From this time, Judges of Probate were distinctly appointed.

NORWALK.

The ancient limits of this town was the purchase made from the natives of the country, measured by one day's north walk from the sea: (this included a large part of the present towns of New Canaan, Wilton and Westport.) In May, 1650, the General Court passed an order for its settlement, and in September of the following year (1651) endowed it with full corporate powers. The early records of the colony call it Norwake.

REDDING.

May, 1729. Upon the memorial of Col. John Read, et al., the "inhabitants of Lone Town, Chestnut Ridge, and the Peculiar* between Fairfield and Danbury," were constituted an ecclesiastical society, by the name of Reading; the society being named from the distinguished petitioner. These limits were incorporated a town in May, 1767,—still preserving its local designation, Reading. This orthography has subsequently been corrupted, and the word is now written Redding.

* "Peculiar," in the Colony Records, is a term used to designate any disputed tract of land lying between two or more towns, and the right of jurisdiction over which, by either of them, was unsettled.

RIDGEFIELD

was purchased of the sachem Catoonah, and others, and settled from Norwalk and Milford, in 1708. In Oct., 1709, it was incorporated, under its present name. The boundary line, as established between New York and Connecticut, in 1725, cut off from this town a considerable portion of its territory. As an indemnity for this loss, in May, 1731, Connecticut annexed to it certain lands bounded north by New Fairfield, east by Danbury, south by Ridgefield, and west by the Colony line. In May, 1736, this tract was taken from Ridgefield, and annexed to Danbury; in May, 1820, taken from Danbury, and again given to Ridgefield; in May, 1846, it was a second time separated from Ridgefield, and re-annexed to Danbury. Indian name, Candatowa.

Terms and Conditions.

I. The Asylum will provide for each pupil, board, lodging and washing; the continual superintendence of health, conduct, manners and morals; fuel, lights, stationery and other incidental expenses of the school room, for which, including tuition, there will be an annual charge of one hundred dollars.

II. In case of sickness, the necessary extra charges will be made.

III. No pupil will be received for a less term than two years, and no deduction from the above charge will be made on account of vacations or absence, except in case of sickness.

IV. Payments are always to be made six months in advance; for the punctual fulfilment of which, and the continuance of the pupil for two years, except in case of sickness or dismissal by the Directors, a satisfactory bond will be required.

V. Each person applying for admission, must be between the ages of eight and twenty-five years; must be of good natural intellect; capable of forming and joining letters with a pen, legibly and correctly; free from any immoralities of conduct, and from any contagious disease. A satisfactory certificate of such qualifications will be required.

Applications for the benefit of the Legislative appropriations in the states of Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts, should be made to the Secretaries of those states respectively, stating the name and age of the proposed beneficiary, and the circumstances of his parent or guardian. In the states of South Carolina and Georgia, applications, as above, should be made to the Commissioners of the funds for the education of the deaf and dumb; and in Vermont and Connecticut, respectively, to His Excellency the Governor of the state, and in Rhode Island to His Honour the Lieutenant Governor. In all cases a certificate from two or more of the Selectmen, Magistrates or other respectable inhabitants of the township or place to which the applicant belongs, should accompany the application.

Those applying for the admission of paying pupils, may address their letters (post paid) to the Principal of the Asylum.

The Spring Vacation begins on the last Wednesday of April, and continues two weeks. The Summer Vacation begins on the first Wednesday of August, and continues six weeks. The time for admitting pupils, is at the close of the spring vacation. Punctuality in this respect is very important; as it cannot be expected that the progress of a whole class should be retarded, on account of a pupil who joins it after its formation. Such a pupil must suffer the inconvenience and the loss.

It is earnestly recommended to the friends of the deaf and dumb, to have them taught how to write a fair and legible hand before they come to the Asylum. This can easily be done, and it prepares them to make greater and more rapid improvement.

When a pupil is sent to the Asylum, unless accompanied by a parent, or some friend who can give the necessary information concerning him, he should bring a written statement as to his name; the year, month and day of birth; the names in full of his parents, brothers and sisters; the place of his residence; whether he was born deaf, or if not, what caused his deafness; also the name and direction of the person to whom letters respecting him may be addressed. He should be well clothed; that is, in general he should have both summer and winter clothing enough to last one year, and be furnished with a list of the various articles, each of which should be marked. A small sum of money should also be deposited with the Steward of the Asylum, for the personal expenses of the pupil not otherwise provided for.

Careful attention to these suggestions is quite important.

THE ATLANTIC WHITE LEAD COMPANY

HEREBY inform Painters and other purchasers of WHITE LEAD, that in accordance with a resolution passed their Board of trustees, they manufacture but one quality of WHITE LEAD, viz: a strictly pure article, and have resolved to confine themselves to the manufacturing of Pure Lead only, and that of a superior quality, making none of the lower qualities or adulterated Leads, such as are usually branded, Extra No 1, 2, &c. &c.

No adulterated material is admitted within their works, and purchasers may always depend upon being supplied with a uniform article.

The quality of the White Lead has been fully tested, and is acknowledged to be superior to any American Lead heretofore manufactured, particularly for its pearly whiteness, brilliancy, purity and durability, and the great body it possesses, being fully equal to the best English White Lead hitherto imported into this country, and the first premium with the silver medal awarded by the American Institute, last season, to the Atlantic White Lead Company, for the best White Lead, dry and ground in oil, is good evidence of its superiority.

A full supply always on hand at the store of
